Call to Worship

Leader: May we,
in God's name,
make community here,
shape space for those around us,
be a home for the stranger and the unloved
and affirm, here, all belong.

ALL: May we open ourselves
to the Word of God,
that it would stir in us
a fresh word of peace and truth.

Leader: Let us worship.

The Faith of a Woman From Canaan

<sup>21</sup> Jesus left Galilee and went to the area of Tyre and Sidon. <sup>22</sup> A woman from Canaan lived near Tyre and Sidon. She came to him and cried out, "Lord! Son of David! Have mercy on me! A demon controls my daughter. She is suffering terribly."

<sup>23</sup> Jesus did not say a word. So his disciples came to him. They begged him, "Send her away. She keeps crying out after us."

<sup>24</sup> Jesus answered, "I was sent only to the people of Israel. They are like lost sheep."

<sup>25</sup> Then the woman fell to her knees in front of him. "Lord! Help me!" she said.

<sup>26</sup> He replied, "It is not right to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs."

<sup>27</sup> "Yes it is, Lord," she said. "Even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their owner's table."

<sup>28</sup> Then Jesus said to her, "Woman, you have great faith! You will be given what you are asking for." And her daughter was healed at that moment.

PRAISE: She came to Jesus from outside the fold (tune Be thou my vision)

1.

She came to Jesus from outside the fold —
Canaanite woman! Persistent and bold!

Looking to Jesus, she wanted to see
One who would help her and set her child free.

Claiming a blessing, a touch of God's grace,
She knew God's love was not bounded by place.
Jesus, you listened, debated — then healed —
For in her asking, her faith was revealed.

3.

God, you still bless those who seek you in prayer.
You welcome dreamers who faithfully dare.
In Christ, now risen, your mercy extends:
Those on the outside are welcomed as friends
